Do that by creating a gross sales page for the new book, but do not embrace a value on that page. Instead, add quite a few links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another technique is to test out costs by making a number of duplicate gross sales pages with different costs on every page. Make sure that your sales copy is strictly the identical on every page, and contains your promoting-handle sentence. Then work out for each page the conversion ratio between guests to your web site and gross sales of your book. This can tell you what your optimum value is.

Ultimately, when you've written a e-book that solves a downside or presents a new approach, your e book will bring in both site visitors and profits.
